Staff is seeking feedback and direction on the conceptual visioning documents.

background

Park Avenue is the epicenter of Winter Park's culture, charm and economic vitality. The original Park Avenue streetscape restoration occurred in 1996. Now almost 30 years later, the city's main street is ready for a refresh to provide for today and tomorrow's needs. The project area includes Park Avenue from Fairbanks to Whipple avenues.

City staff and representatives from Stringfellow Planning & Design will present conceptual designs for the vision of the overall Park Avenue Refresh project.
